

What problem could you possibly have with New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list? This law satisfies millions of New Jersey residents, who already feel bombarded by advertising on TV, radio, billboards, etc. Why do we need to have advertising on our telephones lines as well?